

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Beloved Students

السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

- ★ Please revise all of the previous work which has been covered.
- ★ Please re-listen to the lessons as required.
- ★ Please complete the worksheets given.
- ★ Remember the rewards and benefits of Arabic learning.
- ★ Always make dua and seek the assistance of Allah before commencing with one's learning.
- ★ 15 minutes daily is compulsory, the more time given to these studies, the better it is for you.

Arabic is easy, yet difficult! Easy when dedicated, difficult when not!

In this lesson Surah Kauthar was discussed and the following rules were explained:

- Pronouns which replace nouns are used extensively in the Qur'an. Pronouns are called الضَمِيرُ (plural-الضَمَائِرُ). There are various types of pronouns which will be discussed. Examples of pronouns include: the attached pronoun, the detached pronoun, the demonstrative pronoun, the relative pronoun, etc.

الضَمِيرُ الْمُتَّصِلُ (The Attached Pronoun) VS الضَمِيرُ الْمُنْفَصِلُ (The Detached Pronoun)

Attached	Translation	Detached
فَعَلَ	He (singular male)	هُوَ
فَعَلَا	They (dual males)	هُمَا
فَعَلُوا	They (many males)	هُمْ
